Greetings!

We feel your precious prayers and support, and thank God for you. Hope you all had a warm and wonderful Christmas with our Saviour being a center of celebration. I would like to wish you all God's blessings in this year and share the news from our mission field here in Krakow.

I have been involved in Vox Box outreach for the last three and a half years and this semester has certainly been the best! This autumn our team made a few decisions that helped us grow this ministry. One of those decisions was to change the location of our meetings. We have moved to the Jewish quarter, which is a center for Krakow's pubs, local coffee shops and night life. We have also decided to start a Vox Box book club that meets monthly to discuss a book people choose for the following month.

In the past, I had to worry every single week whether anyone would show up to our meetings. This is not the case anymore! There is never fewer than 10 people to attend the group. Some events gathered even as many as 30 and 40 people. The location is a coffee/book shop where different cultural events take place.

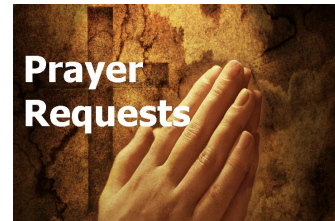

It is also great to have Emily (a young lady from Northern Ireland who moved to Krakow in September) help us with this ministry. All this has been possible thanks to God's grace and your prayers. Please continue praying for the relationships that we are building with those who attend our club regularly.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Please, keep on praying for those who attend our meetings that they find God and follow His will;
- Join us in prayers that God would give us wisdom in carrying out this ministry.
