

Summer camps 2017

Submitted December 2017

Vasyl Boyechko, Resurrection Church, Lviv, Ukraine (78)

Greetings!

We express deep gratitude to HART mission and to all the sponsors for support of our ministry. Thanks to your care and prayers, we are able to preach the Gospel through many ways, including children's camps. We believe that our work will bring good fruit. May the Lord bless you!

Camp ministry is one of the important tasks of our Sunday school. In summer 2017, we conducted 3 camps for children of different age. Some kids present in the camps are those who attend the Sunday school of Resurrection Church, as well as their friends and relatives. There were also those who have never been to Christian camps before. The children had an opportunity to enjoy good rest, sport activities, also experience positive emotions and grow spiritually.

In June, we conducted a camp for children under the age of 6 and their parents. The program of this three-day camp included activities for both children and parents. The kids enjoyed interesting games, competitions and Bible lessons. The parents benefited from the educational seminars on family relationship and child upbringing. A time in the camp was a blessing for the members, as well as ministers.

The camp for children aged 7-12 was held in July. The camp's name was "A Journey of Brave Hearts" and the activities were based on the story of David as the example of courageous character from the Bible. Another important character of the camp was called Wisdom. During the biblical hour the children could discover truth about Jesus and themselves.

A youth camp we conducted in August was called "Challenge". A program was filled with games, competitions and interesting activities, as well as friendly conversations and mountain trip. Everyday young people had special time to build their personal relationship with Christ. The main goal was to challenge them to grow in different spheres, including communication with God, education, friendship and financial planning. The time in the camp was very fruitful for every member and volunteer.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Please, pray for the members of Resurrection church to stand firm in faith and seek God's will;
- Join us in prayers for the vision and growth of our ministry to children and youth.
