

Ministry stories 2019

Olya and Vasyl Voloshyn, Ternopil, Ukraine (66)

Greetings!

Our ministry comprises different activities and spheres. Vasyl preaches at church. Olya is responsible for women ministry. We also organize summer camps, conferences, seminars for women, host small groups at our house and conduct Bible classes for the mothers of CSP kids in our region. All this is possible only because of your precious help and prayer support! May God bless you and reward you for this work! Let us tell you briefly about one girl, who's been attending our home groups.

Evelina is 19. She with her mother have been regularly visiting Bible classes that usually take place at our house. At summertime, she would also go to camps. During the last years, their family was attending Christian summer camps and Bible groups, led by Vasyl. Evelina was very quiet. Sometimes, we even thought she wasn't interested in the topic, for she seemed estranges and introverted. Nevertheless, the family kept visiting all the activities. Evelina's mother was also attending the Christian course for the parents of the CSP kids, as Evelina is also a sponsored child.

Once, when Evelina was already a first-year student of psychology faculty at the university, she asked Olya to help her out with the preparations for the exam (Olya is a professional psychologist). They got a chance to talk and Olya discovered how close the girl was to God. Evelina was so open about her faith for the first time. She said that she was seeking God and felt very uncomfortable in secular companies. She was so sincere in her desire to serve the Lord, but very afraid to go astray from this road. We tried to encourage her and support. After an amazing conversation, we prayed and Evelina seemed very uplifted.

That year, she wanted to visit a baptizing service at our church. She was very touched by what she saw. Young and old people were promising God to serve Him and live their life testifying about His glory. A year later, June 8, 2019, Evelina and her mother were also baptized. They truly showed the fruits of their faith and proved that their desire to serve the Lord is genuine. From that day on, they are a part of our church and always thank God for showing them His love and mercy.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Please, pray for our ministry to bring good fruit for the Kingdom of God;
- Pray for this family to grow in faith and always seek God.
