

Ministry stories 2019

Viktor Kucheruk, Zhytomyr region, Ukraine (94)

Greetings!

We appreciate your involvement in our lives and in the life of our church. I would like you to be able to witness the fruits of the ministry we carry out, for you are our great partners and co-workers. With your precious help and priceless prayers, God's Word is being sown into the hearts of people in Ukraine. Let me share a testimony of one brother who has recently joined our church.

WEBSITE

This picture shows a young man Oleksandr. He repented and was baptized in 2018. Oleksandr, his wife Olena and two daughters (Vita and Lidia) live in Strokiv village not far from the House of Prayer. Vita and Lidia were the first ones to come to church. They used to attend the Bible classes in our Sunday school. Later, their mother came to know the Lord and repented. She works as a teacher at school. When two girls and their mother accepted Christ, they started praying for Oleksandr to choose a right way and believe in Jesus. But they faced so many troubles and obstacles. A sin took over Oleksandr and held him tightly. Seemed like the family was moving towards divorce and failure. However, the Lord has answered the church's prayers and touched Oleksandr's heart.

Today, the family is happy and thankful to God for forgiveness and a new life they all have acquired in Him. Moreover, Vita and Lidia have got a new sister - Nastya. The girl is 16. She had been living at the orphanage, as her parents were alcoholics. But now the girl is fostered by Olena and Oleksandr. God has also touched her heart and she repented at the church, too. Glory be to God for His miraculous acts! He keeps on performing the most incredible miracle - changing people's hearts.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

- Please, pray for Oleksandr's family to remain faithful to God and to have wisdom in raising up their daughters according to His holly Word.
